I am directed to return File No 2385 dated 7-9-11 and to say that His Highness concurs with the views expressed by you on page 7 of the notes viz that in Native States the Pension Rules should not be acted on rigidly and invariably His Highness prefers to reserve to himself the liberty of intervening in any particular case and allowing reasonable pecuniary help, for special reasons to the family of an officer who dies in harness prematurely without any reference to the ordinary Pension Rules

2) The cases of Messrs J Tate and T S Bhimasena Rao seem to His Highness to be both deserving of special consideration

3) As regards Mr Tate's family His Highness thinks that it will be sufficient to give a scholarship of Rs 50/- a month to the two younger children for a period of three years This will give a reasonable time to the two grown up sons to make arrangements for supporting their sisters and brother and for the two elder daughters to settle themselves in life

20 4) In Bhimsena Rao's case His Highness is willing to grant a scholarship of Rs 7/8 each to his t o sons for a period of five years This will give time for the marriage of the two daughters and we may hope that eventually a son-in-law or some other relation will find means to support the family

21 5) It cannot be expected that in these special cases the State should support the family until the children all come of age or marry A reasonable amount of help for a limited period of time is the most that should be granted

22 6) His Highness does not consider it advisable to frame any general rule to cover these special pension cases

Yours sincerely,

MEMORANDUM

MILITARY DEPARTMENT

TO THE DEWAN OF MYSORE

FOR ORDERS

No C 4

DATED 16th June 1911

SUBJECT

Death of Mr J E Tate
Assistant to the Military Secretary

In reporting the death of my Assistant Mr J E Tate on the 14th instant I would ask that the notice recording his death in the Gazette may be accompanied by some short note appreciating his unobtrusive hard work Mr Tate overworked himself at the Karapur camp and from his exertion on that occasion he never really completely recovered

2 On my return from Kunigal during the arrangements for the present Entertainment I found him in an exhausted state having worked, while unfit to do so, at pitching the tents and various other necessary arrangements

3 Finding that he was in state of collapse I sent for his wife and later for a trained nurse but in spite of care Mr Tate died on the 14th at 7 A M

4 He was a loyal and excellent servant to Government and I would note that when the Transport Corps was newly formed the carts for the Corps were at his suggestion made in our own Workshops in lieu of employing contractors to build them The result was a saving of some Rs 78000/ over the lowest contract prices offered

5 Further in regard to the saddle which I patented for Mr Tate he was entitled to a royalty on these but not only did he not charge any when made up for the Corps but even when they were unauthorisedly copied by the Chief Commandant for the Imperial Service Lancers Mr Tate made no claim as they were intended for the use of the State

6 In the light of these facts I trust that his widow's case may receive every consideration She has 3 Girls to support and one young boy

7 If Government could see their way to granting the widow a scholarship for the education of such of these as are under 21 at say 50Rs per mensem per girl and 50 Rs per boy until they either attain that age or marry the widow who has no pension

would have enough to educate them and feed herself for 3 or 4 years by which time her elder boys will I think be in a position to maintain her

Lt Col
Military Secretary

6 To be circulated to Council through the Financial Branch

7 If Mr Tate had retired from service he would have been entitled to a pension of Rs 225 per mensem or Rs 2,700 per annum

10 2 According to Col Jones' recommendation, the proposed rates of monthly scholarships would cost Rs 9,000 till 2 daughters and 1 son attain the age of 21 This does not appear to be excessive as it amounts to the pension which Mr Tate would have drawn for less than 3½ years It may be sanctioned on the distinct understanding that the girls and the boy are put to school and trained for some occupation and that reports of satisfactory progress are received from time to time
